

We Are All One

for George Floyd

Your life has proved - black is not just a colour, and is not to be covered with a mask. So, they don't hide who they are because someone is standing with their lips shut.

But I am here to shout and be heard for you and fight for equality, anger and rage linger inside - so why do we live if we can't be heard? We have to stand up for what is not right.

We are all different and the shadows can no longer protect us from the division society as placed upon us.

So, let's make it our mission to prove that it is the things that set us apart that will bring us to a common ground.

Written by Katie